the post APRIL 22 after a Pearl River County grand jury indicted him on a felony bribery charge and five misdemeanor charges of mishandling prisoners.

District Attorney Richard Douglass had agreed to drop the charges in return for Smith signing the agreement that he wouldn't seek public office again.

Smith asked the county Board of Supervisors to reinstate him after he filed a petition to run in the special election.

Following a two and one-half the supervisor's hearing

The order also prevented Douglass' investigator, Mason Sistrunk, and interim Sheriff Norman Sims from testifying and prohibits the officials from discussing the case before Smith's contempt hearing is held in circuit court Wednesday.

Smith's attorneys on Friday said Douglass violated Smith's civil rights by bringing pressure on him to resign although Smith was not guilty of any wrongdoing. Rogers said Smith was faced with "economic and emotional blackmail."

to about 250 B.C., according to Richard Knapp, director of the planetarium.

The "dirty snowball" description is one often used by astronomers to describe a comet, basically a large solid body with a luminous tail caused by the sun vaporizing some of its material.

The comets follow an elliptical path around the sun at set inand photographs of that art work will be part of the presentation in the Jackson planetarium.

"I'm a little concerned when people refer to this appearance of the comet as the astronomical event of the century," Knapp said.

"It certainly will not be that easy to see, a delicate visual thing. But if people know where to look, they will be able to say

Vandalized school being repaired

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — The library at Hattiesburg High School's Blair Center is being repaired, thanks to a coalition of parents, University of Southern Mississippi students and a librarian.

Vandals dumped five bookshelves, the library's entire card catalog and left empty beer cans behind about a week ago.

"We've got 95 percent of the books back in the racks and the card catalog is well on the way," Co-Principal Reese Snell said Friday.

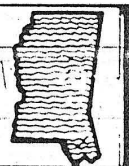

Police Lt. Stewart Stephenson said the incident was the fourth of its kind in the last two and half years.

Death ruled natural

A 67-year-old Pascagoula man was found dead at his home at 104 Victor St., this morning by a friend.

Jesse Garner was pronounced dead on arrival at Singing River Hospital at 8:15 a.m. Monday by Coroner David Miller. An inquest jury ruled death was due to natural causes.

Demos stress building bases

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Members of the Hinds County Democratic Committee believe it's never the wrong year to press for party activity.

At the annual Fish Fry Saturday, the theme of building in non-election years was stressed, along with the state economy and blue laws.

"We need to start building bases before election years," said Hinds County Democratic Committee Chairman Leslie McLemore. "We think the Democratic Party needs to engender support and good will. Hopefully, some of these young kids will become Democrats."

State Rep. Credell Calhoun told the 100 participants that more black-owned industry would help the Mississippi economy.

And former Gov. Cliff Finch managed to work in a few comments.

Man accused of killing ex-wife, friend

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Neshoba County authorities were holding a Sebastopol man in the county jail without bond in connection with the fatal shootings of his ex-wife and another.

William Shaw was charged with two counts of capital murder stemming from the Saturday night shootings.

Neshoba County Sheriff Glen Waddell said Shaw's ex-wife Mary Bell and Arnold Lee Milan were shot to death at Mrs. Shaw's home on Mississippi 21 north of Sebastopol.

Milan's body was found in the dining room of the house and Waddell said Mrs. Shaw's body was found about 100 yards outside. She apparently was shot while trying to flee, he said.

Child dies in closed car

Tabitha Pugh would have celebrated her first birthday today.

Tabitha was pronounced dead on arrival at Singing River Hospital at 4:15 p.m. after being found in Carver Village in a closed vehicle owned by her family.

Detective Sgt. Jamie Hunter and Jackson County Coroner David Miller are investigating and an autopsy will be performed to determine the cause of death.

Hunter said there was no indication of foul play.
